

Whatever your I.T. training needs, chances are we have a solution that will enable you to compress time and accelerate the arrival of your results. InterSource presents clients with an almost unlimited range of options for bridging the gap between plans for software development and implementation.

Increasingly, client training objectives are linked to specific development projects. At InterSource we recognize the tight relationship between training and performance and have adapted our product palette accordingly. Whenever possible, we become involved with client projects at the planning phase, to help clients decide what is best done internally and what should be outsourced.

Now, the only question is, what would you like to be able to do?
