

Our booking procedures have been designed to save you time, while taking into account your particularities and specific requirements. Remember, if you have any questions you cannot answer with the website, you can contact us anytime.

Public classes are regularly scheduled classes with students from multiple client organizations. Please note that standard public classes take place from 10 am to 5 pm United States Eastern Standard Time (EST = New York).

Whether you require training on your site, public online or private online courses, you will observe a consistent level of quality throughout our wide selection of topics.